“ Brother, this cuz will miss you very much. Last time I spoke to you in person was in Mt. Judea, saying goodbye to your mom. I know we dm'ed recently... but if I had known I would have visited ALOT longer. This is rough, I hope you know how much you are loved. Cowboy, this "china doll" is gonna miss hearing you call me sis and receiving your bear hugs. I know our family in heaven is having one hell of a reunion up there... With all you leaving, I am gonna be one of the "old" cousins... Not an elder yet though. Hug everyone for me. See ya when I get there. Save a bear hug for me. I love you.

“ Jerry was such a kind hearted, loving, caring, honest no matter what you thought when asking opinion he'd give a honest much appreciated answer, that would give hope in many ways he didn't even realize he did, and he was a great friend always telling me to not ever hold my head down in anything I did, to always hold my head up because something good is always to come no matter how bad a situation could be!!! I'd wake up to a good morning beautiful lady and as many others he'd say a woman should always know she is pretty even if she's ugly lmao!!!! He's was such an outspoken man and I loved that about him! I'll miss so much about jerry! I should've gone to see him at the lake, didn't but hey we will have that chance to go fishing when the good lord permits it! I know he's looking down smiling bc I haven't held my head down yet, and that's bc of you jerry, I love you, you are soooooooo missed and loved by your friend keisha sharp! One more thing jerry was an awesome father and would always say he has the best kid a man could ever ask for when we'd talk about jake his eyes would light up the room, he loved that boy so much, as his son does him, so my condolences go out to jake treat and jake if you r reading this I love you honey, keep your head up bud, don't you ever look down bc there's always something good to come like your dad always said!

“ there are no words to say that will fill the void that is there in your home and in your hearts, just dwell on the memories you have and know that he is in a better place than we are. we still have our journey to make but Jerry can rest now and wait on all of us that are still here doing God's work. Rest in Peace Jerry and know that you are going to be missed greatly. Deepest symphathy to all his family and know that God has his arms open wide to give you peace and comfort
