“ So sad to hear of such a great General for the Lord leaving but excited for him. We did not know or would have come. I guess everyone thought some else had let us know. Prayers for all.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family at this difficult time. Mr. Martin was such a sweet man he always came in to see me at Andersons he'd greet me with a hug and kiss on the forehead every time, he sat with me one day when there was no tables and spoke highly of his family and told me all about his younger days. He was the sweetest person I will miss getting to see and visit him dearly.

“ To each of the family members, I know this is a difficult time for each of you. Earths lose is Heavens gain, he has run the race, he has finished his course, and a crown of righteousness is laid up for him. I was thinking about him this afternoon, when Cob Creek used to have the radio broadcast on KRBS. He lifted up the Lord each Sun to NW AR. He will be missed by those who knew him, He is not suffering any longer, at peace. He told of a time, when all of God's children get home. no more sorrow or pain. May the Lord hold each of you in His arms of love.
