“ This guy is an amazing man.....his heart was lovin, kind , caring and he cherished his children , family, and true friends...he lived life to the fullest and enjoyed most if it.... he never took a kindness as a weakness nor was he one that lived with hate...He forgave easy and would be there for all who needed him..... 100% He was my best friend, my ride r die... and even my theopist at times... he believed in God and wanted a change... little did i know that he wiuldnt be around to cheer me up , pick me flowers. I now know why a last goodbye kiss means so much... i will miss ur silly crazy friendship we shared forever...i love u lots like polkadots..... till we meet again
