“ Kaye and her younger sister Cherrie and I grew up first cousins close in age (mine between theirs) among the families descended from Blair relations: their mom and mine were sisters, and we shared our beloved Granny & Papaw.

I treasure a million memories of playing together as girls. Thanks in large part to their mama, my Aunt Rose, we and other Blair cousins have kept reuniting about every three years as adults.

It was a blessing to be with Kaye once more this past September at our most recent Blair family reunion. I know she was glad to be able to attend, and we of her loving family were so grateful also that she could. And it was on a beach! For a gal who lived most of her life pretty far inland, Kaye surely did love every chance to spend time beside or on an ocean.

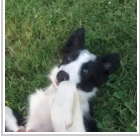

My heart goes out to each and every one of Kaye's nearest and dearest, those I know because we're family, and those I've never met. I loved her and miss her too. Rest in peace, Kaye. ❤️

“ I met Kaye when she did substitute teaching at HMS. I soon learned that she was kind, funny, intelligent and creative. A visit with Kaye would lighten your day! It was clearly evident how much she loved her family. My condolences to her family.

“ My friend, but more of a sister. We shared so many good times...fishing, eating, playing darts, raising our kids, painting a mural on the basement wall ..I could go on forever. When I visited in December, she told me she was going to live until spring, because it's a beautiful time of year, a time of rebirth. And she DID! Rest in love my dear friend ❤️ Heaven has openings it's arms to you.

“ Kaye was a dear friend of many years. Even though we lived far apart we managed to visit now and then and have long conversations by phone. She was beautiful and smart! She loved Jerry and Jason with all her heart. I will miss her laugh and wit. Rest in peace my friend.
