Kayla Brooke Dotson, 16, of Japton, Arkansas went to be with her Savior on Wednesday June 14th, 2017 at Washington Regional Medical Center. Kayla was born on May 16, 2001 in Johnson, Arkansas to Jeremy and Ginger Dotson. Kayla attended Huntsville Missionary Baptist Church. She loved her friends dearly and loved to spend as much time with them as possible. She loved her family with all her heart, and also loved shopping, the beach, and the lake. She was a straight A student in school, and loved to buy her family and friends little gifts frequently to brighten their day. On July 27, 2010 Kayla received a second chance at life when she received a heart transplant. She was very thankful for the donor family and Kayla lived each day to the fullest. She was a big supporter of organ donation and frequently posted messages on social media asking everyone to become a donor. Kayla is survived by her parents, her brother Jacob Dotson of Fayetteville, Arkansas, sister Emily Dotson of the home, brother Devin Dotson of the home, grandparents Dennis and Patricia Rogers of Japton, Arkansas and Terry and Glenna Dotson of Huntsville, Arkansas, great-grandfather Delbert Clark of Huntsville, Arkansas, and many aunts, uncles, and cousins. It seems that in her short 16 years on this earth, she left a lasting impact on her family and community. Her love for the Lord was so evident, as she lived each day to its fullest.
