

Kelly Michele Hendricks

January 24, 1977 - January 16, 2026

Kelly Michele Hendricks, 48, of Rogers; passed away Friday, January 16, 2026, at Barnes-Jewish Hospital, in Saint Louis. She was born Monday, January 24, 1977, at Springdale; to Charlie Brown and Marie Ann Wise.

Kelly married Robert John Uetz on Monday, January 27, 2025, in Huntsville, Arkansas. Together, they had five children: Clayton, Charlee, Jaycee, Harlee, and Logan. Kelly dedicated many years of compassionate service as an ER nurse at Harrison Hospital and as a nurse at North Arkansas Regional Medical Center.

In her free time, Kelly found joy in simple, meaningful pursuits such as gardening, crafting, and cooking. Kelly was the woman who always wore mismatched socks. She had a deep love for the outdoors and especially enjoyed hunting, deer hunting with black powder rifles, and off-roading adventures. Kelly also appreciated tattoos, each one holding special meaning to her, and she had a profound love for music, which was a constant source of comfort and joy in her life.

More than anything, Kelly cherished the time and love she shared with her husband, children, and grandchildren.

Kelly was preceded in death by her mother and step-father, Marie and Jimmy Gulledge and her father, Charlie Brown.

She is survived by her husband, Robert John Uetz, Jr., of the home; one brother, Charlie Brown, Jr., of Missouri; three daughters and one son-in-law, Charlee Marie Brown, of Nevada, Missouri, Jaycee Johnson, of Williamsburg, Missouri, and Harlee Warren, of Joplin, Missouri; two sons and one daughter-in-law, Clayton and Alicia Brown, of Houston, Texas, and Logan Uetz, of Rogers, Arkansas; and two grandchildren, Kelson Brown, of Nevada, Missouri, and Dansby Brown, of Houston, Texas.
