“ I miss you mom, we all do. It's been hard without you, but were making it through. We live with grandma and papa. Grandma takes good care of us, she feeds us, keeps a roof over our head, and provides us all warmth. Dad misses you the most, he went through a dark stage when you passed on, he is in the hospital now with a new disease and I hope he gets better soon. I hope heaven is as wonderful and peaceful as the bible describes. I love you and miss you mom!

“ I offer my deepest sympathies to the family and friends of Ms. Kelsey Anne Holmes. This world has so many problems that effect us all, sadly we and the government have no solutions to life's big problems; but where can we find those answers? Jehovah Gods word the Bible gives us many of those answers, as well as practical advice that we can still use even though the Bible was written over 2,000 years ago. What I would like to share with you though is the hope it provides us, and wouldn't you agree we really need hope? That hope for the future helps us to cope with the present, overcome the past and give us something to strive for so we can walk with determination toward the future. As mentioned earlier this world has many problems we know that death is only one, yet God promises that all those problems will be gone including death and that is the hope I want to share with you. Hoping you will find comfort. Isaiah 65:21-23 "They will build houses and live in them, And they will plant vineyards and eat their fruitage. They will not build for someone else to inhabit, Nor will they plant for others to eat. For the days of my people will be like the days of a tree, And the work of their hands my chosen ones will enjoy to the full. They will not toil for nothing, Nor will they bear children for distress..." John 5:28, 29 "..The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, ...to a resurrection of life,..."

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family and friends of Kelsey Holmes. There will come a time when death and mourning will be no more. (Revelations 21:3,4) This is what our loving God, Jehovah has promised. We have the hope of seeing our loved ones again. (John 5:28,29) May those verses bring you some comfort in your time of mourning.

“ I had the honor of substitute teaching Kelsey for many years. I also worked and traveled with the Huntsville High School Quiz Bowl team, of which she was a part, when they won the Arkansas State Championship in 2008. I knew her as a kind, smart, hardworking young woman who set a wonderful example for all those around her. I am so sorry for the young loss of Kelsey, for us all; even knowing she has gone with God.

“ I remember how easy it was to talk to Kelsey. She was stubborn but loved and cared deeply. She loves loved on my babies all the time and would say she couldn't wait for her own. From an early age she wanted to be a mom so bad, and once she had her first baby she grew into another wonderful version of Kelsey :) she would do anything for those babies. I'll certainly cherish our talk several weeks ago where we talked at a basketball practice. You were there for Lilly. I'm so glad now I bumped into you. You will greatly be missed by all whom knew you.
