“ I remember visiting with Larry and Linda when we would come for chicken house equipment and this is how we first got to knowing them. I remember one visit larry had taken the project on to wire some new chicken houses and he was proud of his electrical work. He always had time to stop what he was doing an visit with us. I soo enjoyed the visits with him and Linda. I also recall him talking of his daughter and granddaughter .He was so proud of you an his family; you could tell through his talk y'all meant everything to him.May GOD carry you Linda and your families through this time of loss, Connie and Carl Longley
