

Layton Porter

February 20, 1924 - March 6, 2016

After a long, fulfilled, and joyful life, Layton Porter, aged 92, passed away on March 6, 2016, at Walnut Grove Nursing Home. He was born February 20, 1924 at Boston, Arkansas, the son of Beecher and Tressie Lane Porter and played many roles during his long lifetime. Among the most important roles were those of Husband, Father, Grandfather, and Great-Grandfather. He was married to his devoted wife, Velma Maggard Porter, for almost 69 years. He was the loving father of five children: Janis Porter Griggs, Springdale; Glenda Porter Neidecker (and husband Brad), Houston, Texas; David Porter, deceased; Samuel Porter, Springdale; Edward Porter (and wife Rhonda), Springdale; brother of Lloyd Porter of Paris, Arkansas, Leslie Porter of Springdale, Beecher Porter of Little Rock, Leon Porter of Kennewick, Washington. And, he was very proud of his 11 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. He had the honor of serving his country as Corporal of the 536th Amphibious Tank Battalion in the South Pacific during WWII. He was a master brick mason who worked in Northwest Arkansas for over 40 years and was known for his precise and creative work with both brick and native stone. He was an ordained minister who, in addition to giving sermons, performed numerous baptisms and burials. Notably, he officiated at the ceremony of his younger daughter's wedding. Layton Porter was a gregarious man who made friends easily. He loved life but was not afraid of death. And now, he is with his Heavenly Father forever. He was preceded in death by one brother, Lawrence Porter and two sisters, Martha Porter and Bernice Yates. Funeral services will be held at 2;00 P.M. Thursday, March 10, in the chapel of Brashears Funeral Home www.brashearsfuneralhome.net with The Reverend Loren Collins officiating. Interment will be in the Venus Cemetery. Pallbearers will be: Greg Birchfield, Steve Everett, Dale Porter, Sam Bowman, Kent Myers and Rick Smith. The family will receive friends from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday at the funeral home.

“ What a wonderful man Uncle Layton was! I remember being a little girl and listening to stories he would tell me. He was always so joyful and funny! I am so sorry and will be praying for you all, especially you Aunt Velma. It was obvious to me that you both loved each other very much. I will not be able to attend the funeral but please know I will be thinking of each of you.

“ I have attended many funerals and encountered Mr. Porter at many other occasions with my husband Donny. He always seemed like a very nice man. His granddaughter, Abbi and our daughter, India, are lifelong friends. I'll bet that Donny is visiting with Layton right now in heaven. Prayers for comfort for his family.

“ Mr. Porter was a kind man. When I was younger I spent a lot of time at the Porter house with my friend Glenda. He always treated me with love and kindness. He was a truly man of God and lived what he preached. I know that he is a saint in heaven today. I am sending prayers for your loss. You were certainly fortunate to have had him as long as you did.
