

Lesia Lynnette Davis

August 4, 1962 - December 1, 2016

Lesia Lynnette Davis passed away at her home in Edmond, Oklahoma, Thursday December 1. Lesia was born on August 4, 1962 at the Madison County Hospital in Huntsville, Aransas. She was preceded in death by her father, Ronald Dean Davis; her maternal grandparents, Guy and Katherine Whorton; her paternal grandparents, Murel and Amo Davis; uncle, Larry Davis and cousin, Jay Uhrich. She is survived by her mother, Belinda Davis and her sister, Joanna Davis Hamrick along with her husband Stephen Hamrick and their daughter Hattie all of Edmond, Oklahoma. She is also survived by her maternal aunts and uncles, Eddie and Pam Whorton and Eulena Carpenter; her paternal aunts and uncles, Bill and Zee Davis, Carol Davis, Nancy and Richard Uhrich, Patty and Charles Ayers and Larry and Janice Horine; her great aunts and uncles, Roberta Appleton, Madge and James Whittemore and Bob and Dee Davis. She is also survived by a multitude of cousins on both her maternal and paternal side. Lesia was much loved by her parents, Ronald Dean and Belinda Whorton Davis. She was the first grandchild of Guy and Katherine Whorton and the first to graduate college on both her mother and fathers side. She graduated from the University of Texas Arlington with honors. While attending UTA for a degree in broadcasting she had the opportunity to be the anchorwoman for the UTA news channel. She had a successful career in the field of insurance with American Fidelity Assurance in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Her career was shortened by her illness. Lesia was a private person who loved movies, books and travel. Her biggest passion was for her three poodles, Pepper, Fluffy and Baby. In 2015 she fulfilled a lifelong dream of visiting Paris, France. She also enjoyed visiting Seattle, New York, Washington DC, Nashville, New Orleans, Chicago and Vancouver-Victoria, Canada. Lesia enjoyed many things, fishing with her granddad, snow skiing with her high school friend Michele, plus bowling, swimming, scrabble and bridge. She liked any game that gave her a challenge and of course the Razorbacks which with her medical condition she watched from the sidelines. Lesia also enjoyed watching or on TV many types of sports, especially tennis and was a big fan of John McEnroe and was especially happy when she got to meet Serena and Venus Williams. She loved the OKC Thunder and was so excited to meet Kevin Durant at the food court in front of the movie theater. Lesia enjoyed all types of music and went to many concerts. Her favorite ones were Frank Sinatra, Jackson Five, Prince, The Eagles, Rod Stewart and her high school heartthrob Rick Springfield three times. Lesia was engaged once and turned down three proposals, while waiting for Brad Pitt. His picture remains on her desk. Lesia enjoyed spending time with her closest friend, Susan and deeply loved her mother, sister and niece, Hattie. She will be missed by a lot of people but will be missed the most by her loving mother. The world has lost a loving, intelligent and wonderful person. Life just will not be the same without her. Funeral services will be held at 10:00 A. M. Wednesday, December 7 in the chapel of Brashears Funeral Home with Reverend Brad Moore officiating. Interment will be in the Huntsville Cemetery under the direction of Brashears Funeral Home www.brashearsfuneralhome.net at Huntsville, Arkansas. Memorials may be made to the Sjogren's Syndrome Foundation, 6707 Democracy Blvd, Suite 325, Bethesda, MD 20817, 800-475-6473.

Tribute Wall

BH

“ My condolences to Lesia's family, Mother, Husband, Daughter. I worked with Lesia at Sears here in Arlington, TX in the 80's and she was such a wonderful co-worker. Her intelligence and wit allowed work to be fun. When she moved away to Edmond, we all missed her.
Rest In Peace Lesia.

Bob Hurley - May 17, 2021 at 12:00 AM

BD

Thank you Bob Hurley!

Belinda Whorton Davis - August 05, 2022 at 01:33 PM

BD

“ Love and miss my baby girl.

Belinda Davis - December 26, 2016 at 12:00 AM

LB

“ Belinda; Please except our deepest sorrow. The Bible calls death our enemy at 1Cor 15:26 "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing". Jehovah (that is God's name) will soon reunite us with our dead loved ones here on a paradise earth with no more sickness or death. Belinda, please go to our website JW.org on the home screen click on bible teachings than bible questions answered. You will be amazed at what the Bible teachings. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you at this most difficult time.

Larry & Vanessa Brown - December 09, 2016 at 12:00 AM

MS

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of your loss.

Margaret (Mrs. Austin) Smith - December 08, 2016 at 12:00 AM

SS

“ I don't personally know you or your sweet daughter, Lesia, but want you to know that I understand & feel your pain. Our precious daughter, & only child, had to leave us 20 years ago at the age of 33. We miss her each & every day &, of course, always will. I pray your memories will comfort you & that our loving God walks beside you each step you take. He never leaves or forsakes us each time we just ask. Sincerely, Sharon Selph

Sharon Selph - December 08, 2016 at 12:00 AM

BM

“ Belinda. I was unable to attend funeral due to work schedule. I will keep you and the family in my thoughts @ND prayers during this most difficult and trying times

Bill Mason - December 07, 2016 at 12:00 AM

MD

“ Lesia - you made me laugh SO much!! Especially trying to ski in Colorado. It wasn't really our thing, was it? You will be missed, but you are in a good place now! Rest, my friend. Until we meet again.

Michele Duskin - December 06, 2016 at 12:00 AM

BD

“ Belinda we send you and family much comfort in the lose. We pray that you will have peace. With love Bob and Dee

Bob and Dee - December 06, 2016 at 12:00 AM