“ Lyndell and his whole family was so very good to my brother, Danny Edens. They claimed him as their own family member. When he passed away they had a plot for him in their burial site, in the Alabam Cemetery. One never forgets something like that. I have been very, very sick and this is the first time I have been on the computer and the first thing I looked up and read. I am so sorry to discover of Lyndell's passing. Yes, he was a very good man! My sympathy goes out to all of the family and all who loved him dearly.

“ Sweet Lynda
I am so sorry for your loss. I know you were your daddy's girl and my heart hurts for you. Its funny how well I remember hanging at your house--on the hill-- growing up. Lyndell always treated me like a daughter. When he gave you spending money he always gave me some. He fed me and always welcomed me into his home and allowed me to go to the rodeos to see you barrel race. I remember how handsome and well dressed he always was. I always admired the relationship you had with your dad. I can only imagine what a great papa he was. Thank you for the friendship we had and allowing me to have the great memories of your dad---what a guy !!
! Loved by us all
Blessings to you sweet one
Ane

“ I have so many fond memories of Lyndell. He was one of those unforgettable characters! Many times he helped with our horses and navigating rodeos. The last time I saw him was a few years ago at a neighborhood garage sale near the farm. It had been several years since I'd seen him and he knew exactly who I was and we reminisced. Rest in peace Lyndell, we'll never forget you.
