“ Mamie was a good friend of my mother's, and I always loved her. I loved going to visit her, and we were planning to bring the youth to her house tonight for caroling. I wanted to come to her service but was cooking for our employee Christmas lunch. She was a very sweet person and I know you'll miss her. I loved it when she came to church and sat on the pew behind me. I will miss her.

“ Mamie was a grand lady, I enjoyed working as her caregiver. She told me alot of stories about her life. Heaven surely gained a angel when GOD called her home. My prayers are with each and every one of you in this time of grief. Remember we can see her again one day if we make Heaven our home. I prayed for her alot when she was hurting as she did for me I know. She was like a mother to me and I loved her dearly. May GOD comfort everyone of her family now and always. love in Jesus, Carolyn Meek
