“ I would like to recognize my dearly departed brother-in-law, Mark Simmons, who tragically died on my birthday this year.

I had known him practically my entire life. He always made me feel welcome when I came to visit my sister and him and their children and grandchildren. Even though I was the only vegetarian at family meals, he always made sure I had something cooked to order in pans washed safely clean of any trace of meat before preparation. He was more careful with my meals than I am myself.

Although we had very different political views, Mark always made me feel honored as a guest in his home. When I would thank him for being such a wonderful host, he would say, "Well, we want you to come visit us again." And I did, over and over. The hospitality of their home helped me forge an unbreakable bond with their family. I will always be grateful for how he has taken care of my sister and their children and grandchildren.

Mark, we will miss you forever. Your heritage lives on in your beautiful family and in those of us who were blessed to know and love you.

“ I only met Mark one time when he came to my house to help Brian pick up some furniture. I will never forget his kindness and how friendly he was, insisting on helping us load some furniture that was going to storage and then insisting on following to the storage facility to help unload it. I know how much his family will miss such a wonderful man and my heart is broken for you.

“ Went through Military Police School with Mark In 1976 , then off to MCAS Yuma. While in Yuma remembering he ask if I wanted to ride to Daggett, Ca, did not even hesitate even though I had no idea where that was.. Was there in MCAS, Yuma where he was had a rattle snake bite while on patrol and still apprehended the suspect. Stationed In Okinawa with him. And saw him the last time while he was a MCLB, Barstow, Ca. A lot of memories of The Marine PFC to Gunny when I knew him. May he rest in Peace. My prayers to His family.

“ Family,
I was heart sick when I read of Mark's passing. I taught at school and had many events in the cafeteria. Though it was never a part of his job, he always came out and helped me with set up and sometimes clean up. I learned what a really good person he was and felt honored to know him.

Please know that I will remember him always and will be thinking of you, his family.
