“ Heaven has gained an angel.

Although we are hurting earth side, we are happy to know you're reunited with Harold in Heaven.

Mary Ellen taught me valuable life lessons that shaped my life into what it is today. She taught me how to love Jesus, the importance of hard work, how to respect and love others, and the value of giving rather than receiving to name a few. She was always a phone call away, and had a true servants heart. We will never forget the impact she made and the legacy she leaves behind.

It's impossible to put it into words how important she was to our family and community.

I love you Mary Ellen. Thank you for being such an incredible role model and for loving me like your own.

Until we meet again in Heaven,

Amanda
