“ I am her daughter and we are so appreciative of the outpouring of love at this time. Mother was an amazing woman, a very cool mix of lady and farm hand, with skills & abilities that few will develop. She was strong yet gentle, principled yet nonjudgmental, concerned yet she did not interfere nor did she gossip, counseled yet did not preach.

Do you get the picture? She was everything she needed to be for everyone who needed her. I believe it is testimony to her intelligence, incredible stamina, and her absolute belief that we are an expression of God's love as extended to her in times of need. Love to be extended to others in their times of need.

Words once spoken by her mother-in-law at the death of a second son in a short while seem fitting today:

*"The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, blessed be his name."
Mother, blessed be yours for the life you have lead and the love we have known.*

Forever in your debt. Kerry
