“Kitty & family, I am so sorry for your loss and what you are going through, there is nothing that anyone can say or do to make your pain any easier, only God can set your heart at peace now. All of you are in our thoughts and prayers. I have so many fond memories of Sam, him and Lakelyn was boyfriend and girlfriend in kindergarten, you made that vest for Sam to give to her, I still have that vest and lots of pictures of him over the years, he was a dear and close friend of Lakelyn's and Sam will be missed deeply. We love you, and God Bless.

“ Dear Luellen, Mike, Beth, and Family,

I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and concern for you and also share with you the wonderful hope for our dead loved ones. As you grieve Michael's death, please reflect on the hope in question, which comes from Jehovah God. By means of the Bible, He allows us to understand how He'll eliminate death for good one day and bring our dead loved ones back to life. This is evident in Scriptures like (Isaiah 25: 8), (John 5: 28), (1 Corinthians 15:26), (Revelation 21:3 and 4), which can comfort you in this time of sorrow. God's promises are guaranteed because He cannot lie (Titus 1:2). Moreover John 11 verses 11-14, 39, 43, and 44 attests that Jesus, whom God appoints to bring the dead back to life, can do it since he did it when he resurrected Lazarus and several others when he was on earth. As you await Michael's resurrection, please heed Jesus' counsel in John 17 verse 3 and take steps to gain accurate knowledge of God and Jesus by carefully studying the Bible with the Jehovah's Witnesses. In John 5 verse 39, Jesus explains that such study is imperative if one wishes to have everlasting life one day here on earth, which will become a paradise where you can be reunited with Michael again in a world free of violence, war, sickness, old age, death etc... (Ps 37: 9-11 and 29), (Psalms 46: 8 and 9), (Isaiah 33:24), (Job: 33:25).
