“ I worked with Misty at the hospital in Harrison, she was a hard worker and was always a joy to be around. We did not have a lot of time to talk but she loved her child. It is sad that she is not with us anymore. She will be missed by many people.

“ Please accept our prayers and support during this difficult time. Although our paths crossed in this terrible accident and a precious life was lost, we are all blessed that our Lord and Savior has promised us eternity in heaven. We will pray for your family and children and ask that our Lord will watch closely over them and bless them with abundance. Our heartfelt condolences to your family.
