“ Although Dee was my brother, we did not spend a lot of time together. However he was a very humble person and a "real person" he did not pretend to be something he wasn't. He loved his family, his girls as he called them and Samuel too. He was so very proud of their successes in life and the goals they are aspiring toward. He loved to drink coffee and feed you whenever you visited. If you left hungry or thirsty it was of your own accord. Dee was a great gardener, cook and he loved to fish. To Dee's children and grandchildren, May your memories and the love he had for all of you, lift you up and comfort you during this time of loss.

Dee, the youngest son of my Aunt Lovella 7 boys, was quite a humble person, always friendly, kind. He loved his daughters, and grandchildren and spent lots of good times with them these last few years. He was very proud of them & their abilities & careers. Donna, you were a blessing to him. He's no longer in pain, or sick & in a much better place. Death is difficult for everyone because of the love families share among one another. Remember all the good times and cherish the memories. Cousin, June
