“ I knew Irene from church. She was always smiling and ready to hear God's word. She will be missed but I know she is in a better place.

“ What a wonderful lady she was, very faithful and talented, I loved her so much she was always good to me and had encouraged me for many years, I am glad that God seen fit to let her stay with us for the amount of time she was allotted, she has left us with quite a few memories throughout her lifetime, and I am glad that I had the pleasure of knowing her. I will miss her but I know she is in a better place now. You are always in my thoughts and prayers , I love you guys.

“ Junia and Steven, I am so sorry for your loss. Happy that you got to be with your mother for such a long life. I know you will miss her terribly but be happy for her because she is with our Lord Jesus! She was such a wonderful woman and one of the most Christ loving women I have known. I love all of you and wish I could be there for you during this difficult time. Gloria
