“ Nathan was always a really good friend to me. I loved going to his birthday party at the skating rink and playing with him at recess and chasing him and we always had lots of things to talk about. I will really miss him and never forget him, but he will always live in my heart.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Macie and Paetin went to JAMS with Nathan and both of them really enjoyed playing with him. I know it's hard to try and make sense of such a hardship but I try to find peace within by thinking that the Dear Lord above wanted him to come home and he will be a precious Angel watching over youR family. All our prayers are with you.
