“ I will always remember Tobe. He always put a smile on my face when he would greet me as I was getting on or off the bus at school. His hugs and kindness. He always had a great memory. I was amazed that even back then he didn't look his age. I truly thought he would live forever. He will be missed by so many. It makes my heart ache that he is no longer with us.

“ Barb, We have sooooo many happy memories with Mr. Tobe....just as sooooo many people do!!! He befriended us when we first moved here, and his friendship never changed!! He came out and built our hearth 27 years ago....at 78 years old...and we could barely keep up with bringing him rocks as fast as he laid them!! He poured the cement for our 4 car garage nearly 10 years AFTER that!! He was always kind and had a positive word for everyone he met! Our kids LOVED coming trick-or-treating to your house over the years!!! He was a good man, and he will be missed! Our hearts ache for you!

“ I had a fair sized concrete slab to pour years ago. Tobe came and helped me but he did most of it. He made it look easy which it was not. Finishing concrete is hard work. When he worked in California one of his jobs as a concrete finisher was pouring launching pads at Vandenberg Air Force Base. He and his crew had to trowel iron filings into the wet concrete so it would with stand the heat from the rockets. Someone asked how much concrete he helped pour in a day of work in California. He replied, "Acres". It was always a pleasure to talk to Tobe. My sympathies to his family and friends.

“ I remember once, I was in 3rd grade. I was about to move to a different state, I was so upset and crying. My mom had checked me out to leave. Tobe gave me a dollar to cheer me up. Made things a lot easier for me. Also, the hugs when we got off the bus in the mornings.... Seeing him at Wal-Mart as a kid when it was on Lee st. Then in 2018 while working at walmart in the new location. He truly brought smiles to hundreds of children ❤️
