“ To all the family members, may the Lord hold each of you in His loving arms. Bro Noel, you have out ran us, you have finished your course, you faithfully ran your race, henceforth a crown is laid up for you, and left a wonderful example for us to remember you.. You have been a blessing to so many. You helped young preachers answer their calling as you opened your pulpits to them. Heaven is better tonight, because you are there. Your testimony is one of faithfulness, to the Lord, the church and your family.

“ I've always admired and loved Uncle Noel, and remember him fondly. He always reminded me quite a bit of Grandpa, their mannerisms, their looks, and the way they spoke. He will certainly be missed, and I truly regret that I won't be able to pay my respects in person. My love and prayers to the family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remember Uncle Noel joking around and kidding with me as a kid. A few of my fondest memories are of riding with him when he graded the roads around Marble, and his singing when the Foster boys got together. My thoughts and prayers are with you all, and I am with you in spirit.
