“ Norman was a kind, friendly man who was a pleasure to know and be around. Visiting with Norman was always a positive and uplifting experience. Norman's zest for life and his love of the outdoors, camping and bluegrass were always discussed. Norman was a fine Christian man. Many occasions will not be the same without him there; we always knew we would see him at decorations. He will leave a great void in the lives of all who knew and loved him. We treasure our memories of Norman and his friendship.
