“ Remembering my Uncle Ottis with images of camping, fishing, and telling stories around a campfire. I'll always remember his overalls and bill cap. I don't think I ever saw him dressed in any other way. I also remember the first time I saw him and Aunt Lou Jean dance. I was so impressed that he could dance so well!! But mostly, I just remember the love and happiness I experienced being a part of the Parker family with all my Daddy's brothers and sisters and all their children. Now, as God has called one more of my Dad's siblings home, I become acutely aware of how precious each moment is with all the members of his family. Each time I get to see them is a wonderful blessing. May God give Aunt Lou Jean, Delores, and all the boys strength as they say good bye. Sincerely, Cathy
