“ I love you guys so much and I am very sorry for your lost. Your mom meant the world to me she was not just my cousin she was my best friend. She always had a smile and a hug for me when she seen me. I will miss her so much. It is hard to put in words what she meant to me and my family. She was my mom's best friend. I will never forget her. I thank God that I got to meet such a wonderful special Lady. She loved God with all of her heart and soul.If there is anything that we can do just let us know. Rose you and your family are in our thoughts and Prayers. Love and Prayers, Chris, Melissa, Miracle Hendrix and Brandon Fields

“ I would like to give my sincere condolences to the family and friends of Pansy Riley. I did not know her personally, but I am sure that she was most dearly loved and will most certainly be missed. Losing someone you love in death can be a very difficult experience to go through. However, please know that you are not without support. God does notice your sadness and grief and He cares for you. (1 Peter 5:7) He has promised that very soon, no one will lose a loved one in death ever again. (Revelation 21:4) We can also look forward to being with our dear dead loved ones once again, enjoying life together. (John 5:28, 29) I hope that these few thoughts will provide a measure of comfort in this most difficult time.
