“ Pat was one of my older cousins. As a child, she was always kind and warm to me whenever I wanted to tag alone with her. After not seeing her for years, this past May I was able to stay at her house for a few days. Again, she was the same warm and caring cousin. My prayers are with Dwain and the kids and grandkids as they miss her. May God give you comfort and love.

“ Extending deepest condolences to Ms. Pat's family. It saddens us deeply when we lose those we are close to, but thankfully we have the comfort through the Holy Scriptures at John 6:40 that we have the wonderful hope of one day seeing our loved ones again. What a beautiful hope that is.

“ My Dear, Dear, Dear friend and cousin. When we were little we looked so much alike, even our own cousins sometimes mixed us up. I will miss you more than words can say. Thank you for all the help and friendship and visits you gave me when I lived in your childhood home in Japton in 2006 through 2013. My only comfort is that my grief is shared by so many others who also loved you. Goodbye for now, Cousin Rita Glenn

“ Years ago, I worked as a part-time teller at the First National Bank. Pat was my boss, and I can say with great certainty that I have never had a kinder, more even-tempered, capable and compassionate supervisor. I had difficulty one day, and here came Pat, smiling and saying she'd help me. I often heard her speak of her children; her pride in them was apparent. I did not often see Pat in the last few years, but when we bumped into each other, she was as friendly as ever. The family has my heartfelt condolences on their loss. Many times the journey just seems too short.
