“ Tim, Bonnie, Pam & Van I'm so sorry for the loss you are feeling. One thing I know from past memories and events Pat loved her family so much. I'm sure she continued to be a wonderful mother and grandmother. Her legacy is her children, and their spouses, her grandchildren & the great grandchildren.

“ Tim, Pam and Van : Our deepest sympathy is with you today. I will always remember your Mother's kindness when we were moving from Albuquerque to be your next door neighbor. She was the first person I met in Springdale and she was bringing lemonade and cookies. We had a lot of good laughs together.

“ My condolences to all of the family. Dr. Endacott was one of my favorite people when I was young and always riding a horse, he always offered so much encouragement. I didn't know Pat that well but knew she was so important in keeping the vet clinic going. Peace to each of you during this trying time.
