No one could ever have a better neighbor than Pat. We lived beside her for ten years before moving to another town and we missed her. All four of my babies were born when we lived there and she loved them dearly and they loved her. The last time I visited her, we laughed about some stories she told about my children. She was a sweetheart who loved the Lord and I'm thankful we knew her. She was wonderful!!! Prayers for Peggy and all the kids. She loved you dearly.
