“ I happened upon this notice and my heart goes out to the family of Phoebe Trolinger. Though I do not know the family, I wanted to convey my sympathy and comfort. Our heavenly Father is a God of love and He hates to see us in pain. (Rev 21:3,4) Also we await the fulfillment of John 5:28,29 where it promises that all those in the memorial tombs will come out. What a time of celebration when we will be crying tears of joy instead of sorrow. I again am sorry for your loss. With sympathy, Jo Edwards

The Dash

copyright 1996 Linda Ellis

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend.

He referred to the dates on her tombstone from the beginning...to the end.

He noted that first came the date of her birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was "the dash" between those years.

*For that dash represents all the time that she spent alive on earth...
and now only those who loved her know what that little line is worth.*

Just know that you WILL see her again, and She lives within all your hearts and souls. Her "DASH" will live on within yourselves....

“ I was very sad to hear of your loss. I have so many wonderful childhood memories of Ronald and I playing at the Trolinger home. Mr. and Mrs. Trolinger treated me like family and never complained about all of the noise that children naturally make. I'm thankful that I got the opportunity to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Trolinger in 1992 and see dear, old friends, for the first time, through an adult's eyes. I left thinking of what kind, warm people they are and hoped for the opportunity to visit them again. Please know that I will always fondly remember Mrs. Trolinger. Also remember that the longest life is, in the big picture, just a short time on earth, so, really, it won't be that long until you get to see her again. God bless.
