“ Oh Marlene, I can not begin to say how much I miss you! You were such a wonderful, happy, joyous & loving person. How could we not love you. I have wonderful memories of you when we were growing up. With Moms who were sisters & Dads who were brothers we had exactly the same blood coursing through our veins. I am so happy you are not suffering now. No more pain or sorrows. Just happiness being in the presence of Jesus. (Being absent in the body is to be present with God). I love you so! Will see you again some joyful day!

*To All Our Family,
Our hearts go out to you in this sorrowful time. Please, remember that God loves you all and is there to comfort you in times like this & others as well.*

We really loved Marlene in so many ways. She had such a great heart, sweet, kind, delightful to be around, never judging, and accepted people for who they were, was a pleasure to talk with & had an infectious laugh, just like Uncle Clyde .

Marlene being called home to the Lord is a blessing for her. Now she is dancing & laughing with her parents but most of all with Jesus. We need to be happy for her; though hard to do, she is out of pain and the happiest she would ever had been here on earth.

Rest easy Sweet Marlene, you are with our King of Kings. God Bless you always.

*Sincerely,
Cousins
Mike & Kim Burnett*
