

Randell Cloyce Prince Jr

April 21, 1959 - October 25, 2024

Randell Cloyce Prince Jr., 65, of Huntsville; passed away Friday, October 18, 2024, at his home in Huntsville. He was born Tuesday, April 21, 1959, at Conway, Arkansas; to Randell "Hank" Cloyce and Maxine Mardella Williams Prince, formerly from Huntsville.

Randell was a graduate from Huntsville High School. He went on to get his Business Finance degree from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. He was also an Army Veteran and spent some time in Germany. He was a special friend of Dave Gaskill also of Huntsville from early childhood to the present time.

Randell was recently a dedicated Supply Chain Manager for the Science of Education department at the University of Arkansas where he recently retired. He cherished his role and his love for the Razorbacks. He was a kind friend to many and loved his family dearly.

Randell was preceded in death by his parents, Randell "Hank" and Maxine Prince formerly of Huntsville.

He is survived by one Aunt Yvonne Ault, of Paron, Arkansas; two uncles, Hoyett Williams, and Neil (Paulette) Williams both of Benton, Arkansas; ten cousins, Marty Ault of Morrilton, Arkansas, Stacey Bean of Perryville, Arkansas, Amy Blaylock of Benton, Arkansas, Ava Casey, Stanley Rice, Portia Orme, Carl Taylor of Paron, Arkansas, Sandy Taylor of Dover, Arkansas, Lisa McElrath, Micheal Williams of Benton, Arkansas, Shannon Farley Bowman of Springdale, Arkansas and Bo Farley of Pensacola, Florida; and his friend, David (Amber) Gaskill, of Fayetteville.

Cremation is entrusted to Brashears Funeral Home and Crematory of Huntsville.

We plan to have a memorial service in honor of Randell at a later date. We will make an announcement at that time.