“ I'm so sorry about Rex's death. It's been many years since I played ball and worked with Rex. I'm ashamed of just learning of his passing. As with life, Time can slip by and before you know it we 20 years goes by. That's the last time I talked to him. Never met a better, funniest guy in my life. My heart goes out to you Tracy and all your family. I'm truly shocked and saddened.

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to your family in the loss of Rex. He will be missed by family, friends and your pets. God knows how to comfort and cherish your family in the days to come. May you find peace and contentment with God and most within yourselves. I know back in school he used to bug Sandra and I on breaks.

“ God bless your family. We didn't know Rex but we know Tracy's family. I can remember teasing Tracy about dating Rex for so long when she would come in to see her mom or her sister in my beauty shop. I know he is leaving a hole in their family as well as his. May God help to fill that vacancy for Dwain Beverly Teresa Kendall and especially Tracy. Our prayers are with them and the Davis family

“ My sincere sympathy to the family and friends of Rex. The loss of our dear loved ones can be very difficult and distressing to cope with. It has helped myself and others when we remember that our dear loved ones now safely rest in the loving memory of our Grand Creator, Jehovah (Psalm 83 : 18 - God's name) . May you be comforted in knowing that Jehovah hates death (1 Corinthian 15 : 26) and promises to eliminate death forever and bring ones sleeping in death back to life on a cleansed earth. (John 17 : 3; John 5 : 28,29; Revelation 21 : 3-5; Psalms 37 : 10,11, 29). I hope these few scriptures along with your own good and loving memories of Rex help to soothe your hearts and bring you comfort, peace and a hope. Sincerely
