

Rhonda Lee Valentine

July 4, 1964 - October 1, 2025

Rhonda Lee Valentine, 61, of Huntsville; passed away Wednesday, October 1, 2025, at her home in Huntsville, surrounded by her loved ones. She was born Saturday, July 4, 1964, at Las Vegas, Nevada; to Leonard Clarence and Norma Joyce Sichling Stewart.

Rhonda married Gregory Steven Valentine on Saturday, June 4, 2005, in Goshen, Arkansas. She was a proud mother of six children: Darla, Carl, Brandy, Bobby, Ashley, and Mandy. Rhonda was a member of the Aurora Church of Christ and worked as a truck driver for 20 years. She loved life on the farm, especially sewing, gardening, and canning, and she always looked forward to going on cruises. Cooking for her family and friends was one of her greatest joys, as it brought everyone together around the table. Rhonda had a big heart and an outgoing spirit—her door was always open, and she was always ready to lend a helping hand. Above all, her greatest happiness came from the time she spent with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Rhonda is survived by her loving husband of 20 years, Gregory Steven Valentine; four daughters and two sons, Darla Stewart of Fort Smith, Carl and Brittany Stewart of Wesley, Brandy and Scott Skaggs of Japton, Bobby Stine of Oklahoma, Ashley and Jeff Parker of Wesley, and Mandy and Tyler Warford of Hindsville. She also leaves behind her many grandchildren and great-grandchildren, her dear siblings, and countless friends who were so special to her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Leonard and Norma Stewart; one brother, Bobby Stewart, and two grandsons.

“ Rhonda and I were not the favorite daughters in laws of the Stine family. We didn't care. We had each other. Rhonda and Mandy came to see me before this last battle. We had such a great visit. Rhonda had made me a beautiful quilt. I will cherish it until we meet again. RIP my favorite sister in law. ”
