“ I am so sorry for your family. May the God of all comfort and tender mercies sustain you at this difficult time. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ My heart aches for your family during this time. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Though I never had the opportunity to ever meet him, I have heard only the nicest complements of his character and everyone who did know him was better off for it. His legacy of love for his family will live on in the lives of those he touched. Take comfort in knowing that families are forever and that the bands of death have been broken. You will see your sweetheart again. In the meantime, know that your friends and family near and wide are here for you.

“ Uncle Richard was a second dad to me from the time I was born. He was always there and was always ready with advice, asked or not. The memories are endless and I am grateful for that, they seem like yesterday. The camping trips, snowmobiling, hunting, fishing, Easter egg hunts and sitting in garage talking, listening to dad (Charles) and him. Those are probably the times I will miss the most, just being with him and talking. Richard always showed his love for children and they loved him. He was always a "kid's guy" and made sure that we were included. Just in July, I was able to have him meet my son and spend a day on the lake. It meant a lot to me to share that time with him and my son. Seeing my son sit on his lap and drive the boat, brought me back to my childhood and how many memories I have and cherish. Richard filled a huge void for me when my father died and I was blessed to call him uncle.

Football Sundays will not be the same, the ongoing argument over "Da Bears" & Steelers. However, we both new better that the "Steelers Nation" is the best. I was looking forward to Sunday because you guessed it, Bears vs. Steelers. So, this Sunday, I will cheer for the Bears and raise a glass in honor of him! I love you Uncle Richard.

“ May God provide us enough strength to face these difficult times, although no words can really help to ease the loss we bear, just know that the boys and I are keeping everyone very close in every thought and prayer.

We Miss you Great Grandpa.
