“ Robin was a precious sister in Christ and a dear friend! She was such a blessing to me and so many others. Though her days were short, she lived life to the full and the light and love of Christ shone so brightly in and through her. She will be greatly missed, but what a reunion we will all have one day with the one she walks with now!! Love you sweet Robin and can't wait to see you again!! All my love and prayers to Gabe, the kids, and the entire family.

“ Robin is such an amazing soul. She taught me how to be a kinder and more compassionate person. She was very selfless and that inspired me to do better to be selfless. Her faith was so strong and that inspired me to have a stronger faith where I was once weak. Gabe, I loved the way Robin would look at you, and of course laugh at you. Your marriage, your love and friendship is one to strive to be like. Eli and Emme, your mom loved you to the moon and back, and back, and back. It was evident every time I was around you all that you were her world. Her grace through this life was awe-inspiring. I'll spend the rest of my life trying to be more like Robin. You all are in my thoughts and prayers. All of my love, - April Jech

“ I did not know Robin but I felt that I did through Nikki. If I had known her I would think I had a friend for life. She was so pretty and I just know she was so kind from the smile she always had on her face. We went through breast cancer for awhile, not knowing each other. I could feel her closeness when I would hear Nikki talk about her on Facebook. If I had known her I know I would have loved her to the moon and back. All my prayers are for her family and friends. Please Dear God help them to heal from the broken hearts they will have. I am so sorry. Janet Smith
