“ It pains my heart that I hadn't kept closer with my Dad. I feel like the good you all experienced with him is something I inherently got from him. For that I am forever grateful. My prayers are for comfort for Patty, as she has lost here more than any of us. Dad is in pure bliss. There is not a man I know of that was more prepared to meet the Lord.

“ Bro. Box was such a man of integrity, honesty and had a heart of gold. We were honored to pastor he/Patti for 5 years in AR. He left an imprint on our hearts, forever. If there were one thing that comes to mind when we think of him.... when a rock is thrown into the sea, there's a ripple affect that occurs that goes on forever and ever. THIS man has left a legacy, touched lives and hearts with his most beautiful, kind and gentle spirit. He was truly a ROCK to us, when we pastored In AR and was until his death. He has gone to reap his heavenly reward and will be sorely missed. His life played out with the "ripple effect". Only heaven can reveal how many sweet souls were affected by his true love toward others. We love you Bro Box, Patti, Michelle, John, Sharon and the grand babies. May God cover you all, in the days ahead, with such a great loss. Love to all, Pastor and Sis Kelley
