

Ryan Rogers

December 1, 2001 - March 15, 2023

Ryan Dean Rogers, 21, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, passed away on March 15, 2023, in Springfield, Missouri. Ryan was born on December 1, 2001, in Rogers, Arkansas, to Andy & Shelly Rogers. Ryan loved music and art and lived his life to the fullest. Ryan was a 2020 graduate of Huntsville High School, where he was a band member and played the trumpet from the 6th through 12th grades and participated in quiz bowl.

He was preceded in death by the love of his life and fiancé, Matthew Alicea, on March 3, 2023; and his paternal grandparents, Lynn and Bobbie Rogers.

Ryan is survived by his parents, Andy and Shelly Rogers, of Japton, Arkansas; his sister and brother-in-law, Candace and Dustin Serio, of Pea Ridge, Arkansas; his brother, Joseph Rogers, of El Paso, Illinois; his nephew, Everett; his nieces, Aeowyn and Heidi; his maternal grandparents, Virgil and Edna McSperitt, of Rogers, Arkansas; his uncle, Scott McSperitt, of Rogers, Arkansas; uncle, Loy Rogers, of Japton, Arkansas; aunt and uncle, Vicki and Danny Martin of Japton, Arkansas; aunt and uncle, Kelli and Allen Terry of Springdale, Arkansas; and numerous cousins and friends. Ryan is also survived by his family in Pennsylvania, which includes his fiancé's parents, Donna Lee Alicea (nee Adams) and Frank Alicea; grandmother, Dorothy Adams; brother, Ryan (Alexandra); sisters, Shannon (Shea) and Kristyn (Chris); nieces, Fae, Lilla, and Nora; and nephew, Blaine.

The family will receive friends Friday, March 24, from 1-2 PM. at Brashears Funeral Home. Memorial services will follow at 2:00 PM, with Brandon Rogers officiating. In lieu of flowers, his parents ask that you donate to 7 Hills Homeless Shelter in Fayetteville, Arkansas. Donations can also be made to LifeSource, a local nonprofit that provides a variety of services to low-income families. Ryan's fiancé Mattie believed strongly in their mission. Please visit www.lifesourceinternational.org to make donations. Services are entrusted to Brashears Funeral Home and Crematory of Huntsville.

“ Saying goodbye isn't for me. Instead, I will say that I look forward to seeing Ryan again, each time I am reminded of him through a phrase, a joke, even a work of art. These are the things that will keep us close despite death.
