“ Sheri was a beautiful example of a genuine Christian woman. She was always so very encouraging to me with her unwavering faith and love for God and her family and church family. God blessed my life in letting me know her. I know she is happy and free from this broken world in the arms of Jesus. I will look forward to being with her again someday. My prayers and love are with her family for strength because I know she will be greatly missed. Praise God for your memories of her.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I am unable to be there for the funeral but certainly wish I could have been. I know you all, especially Robert (and those beautiful little girls) will miss her. She just had to suffer sooo long. I loved her good gospel singing and she worked tirelessly with the children at the church. She won't ever be forgotten and her place in the pew will always remind us that she was there and made an impression. That's all you can ever hope to attain in this world: to be loved and remembered for being a God loving , lovely person. She had many who loved her and will remember. God bless you all.
