“ Alfred Sharon and I have been friends since about 1962, and a better pair to chose from would be very hard to find. We visited in each other's homes, played board games, exchanged recipes after eating too much at the meals we would put together. I can remember Kristi really got into her food, when she ate, she did so with gusto, and her Dad knick-named her "Pig-pen-Davis! She didn't mind a bit.

Our kids grew up together, and we belonged to the riding club, so we would go on trail rides together, and it was even fun when one of the horses broke loose and came roaring through the camp where everybody was trying to sleep. One time we were on horseback, and climbing a steep hill and someone started by saying "low limb, duck!" which was passed until it got to Sharon, she didn't hear, and the limb slapped her off her horse! She wasn't hurt too bad, except her dignity..

I have so many wonderful memories of this family, but could never tell them all, but I will tell you one thins, I love every one of them, especially SHARON! And even though we didn't get to visit much in the last few years, we still kept in touch, and she will always be in my heart.

“ Sharon will always be one of my favorite people in this world! She welcomed me into the family, showed me how to cook the best scrambled eggs, and gave some of the greatest hugs & kisses I have ever received. She let me get lost in her neighborhood, sleep over, played games and brought love into my heart. An angel in my live forever and always! LOVE JANA (Donna & Bills adopted child).

“ Sharon and I crossed paths at the ball field and I also had the pleasure of being one of Sharon's doctors for a long time. I always looked forward to our visits. She endured her physical pain with such grace and never complained. Alfred was always there to assist her and he would had a quick joke to tell to lighten the mood. They made a great team.

I loved how her face would light up when I asked about her family. Sharon loved them dearly. She will be missed by so many including me. My sincere condolences to all of you. With love, Kellye Smith
