“ Carol was the best sister-in-law anyone could ever ask for. She loved God, family, friends, and people. She never saw a stranger. When you walked into her house, she made you feel at home and always had such good food and plenty of it. I can't imagine Larry, the kids, and grandkids without her. She is with Jesus now, has seen Steven, and is free of all pain. May this thought and the hope we have of a glad reunion day bring comfort to all of you. I loved her.

“ So very sorry for your loss. May God bless your family and give you strength and peace during this sad time. I hope the following verses can help.

Let Fate do her worst, there are relics of joy,

Bright dreams of the past, which she cannot destroy;

Which come in the night-time of sorrow and care,

And bring back the features which joy used to wear.

Long, long be my heart with such memories filled!

Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled-

You may break, you may shatter the vase, if you will,

But the scent of the roses will hang round it still.
