“ Lynn and Lauren
I'm so sorry for your loss. My heart breaks for you. I remember like it was yesterday the day I met you and Sherrie. Vance was so excited for me to meet both of you, I remember him telling me I would love Sherrie. He was right! She was always so welcoming and genuinely happy always smiling. We enjoyed spending time with both of you so much. I only wish it were more often. Lynn remember I'm here if you should need anything at all. I'm praying for you.
God bless you
Love,
Chris Lee

“ Sherrie always had a smile and giggle that made me smile and giggle. We met when Ray and I married and became good friends and neighbors. I miss her and considered her one of my sisters. The world will be different without her but the blessings she gave us will be forever. Rest in peace my friend and see you soon. Love

“ Sherrie was such a bubbly fun person. Always smiling. I remember her and Lynn at Coy's Jewelry store behind the Pizza Hut in Berryville. My mom had Fashion Crossroads. I managed the store. Lynn and Sherrie were such a blessing when I was going thru my divorce. Thoughts and prayers for the family.
