“ Justin, I'm so sorry to hear about Sierra. I know there's nothing I can say or to do to ease your pain. Just know that it'll get easier in time. I'll be keeping the family and loved ones in my thoughts and prayers during this time.

“ You were too young to be taken so soon. My family and I pray that God will touch your family as only he can and somehow help them deal with the tremendous loss of such a great woman. I will just hold on to the memory of your smiling face fishing at our pond and having a good time.
