“ I'm very saddened to hear of your loss. May GOD provide you with comfort and peace during this terribly difficult time. I remember Sue Jo when I was just a little girl. She was beautiful inside and out. I too lost my mother Bobbie Jo and Sue Jo's friend to cancer in February. I'm sure Mom was on the welcoming crew when she transitioned to paradise. No more pain! We have to find strength in GOD's promises. Thinking of you always.

Love,
Samantha Jo (Bolinger) Zody

“ My precious, darling sister is such a great lady. Strong in faith and heart. Sue Jo endure such pain which would have turn us of lesser strength to be a very bitter person. She was so strong in God's faith and to see how she touch so many makes me weep and see how small I am compared to her. She smiled during these heart breaking times and strenghten all who came in contact with her. I can see the angels taking her home with great rejoicing and her loved ones who went before welcoming her home, where there is no pain. I weep and rejoice at her passing. Because her favorite Psalm 91 really shows her faith and how she used it for strength in gathering her family around her and being their strong refuge and shield, a mighty protector. A strong man said no one deserves Sue Jo, how true. Well done thy good and faithful servant. Husband and daughter were so lucky to have such a wife and mother. As for me I did not deserve such a wonderful sister. Love you Sue Jo and may God protect and keep your family safe and provide all their needs.

“ May the Lord give you His Strength and Bless you and keep you. We can rest in our Lord that she is with the Lord in Heaven where there is no pain no cancer no tears and someday He will bring all His children together as He has promised to live with HIM forever. She was a strong Christian lady and co-worker and she gave me a copy of the 91st Psalm to have by my desk for daily strength when I became a supervisor. I cherish the time I worked with her and feel blessed for having known her. Thank you for sharing SueJo with us. Love Olivia Harlow
