“ *Dear Patrick Family,
I am one of Sylvia Dyer's daughters and want to extend my sincere sympathy for your loss. I ate many times at lunch with Mom and Verda at the Maples, and when I would leave Mom's room, I would always wave at Verda sitting in that chair by her door. We will all miss that endearing little smile of hers. She was such a sweet lady. God Bless, Joyce Roberts and family*

“ To the large and loving family of Verda May. One of my most remarkable remembrance of Verda was when she & I were coming back home from Little Rock after dads open heart surgery in 1990. This was a time of stress and uncertainty. This woman, a person I really didn't know, became a tower of strength, power, logic, & faith. I was so moved and empowered to witness her grit. As we rode back home together, she told stories of her youth, as children with her family, her brothers and the family she had of her own and the pride you could see as she spoke. This woman was really a head of her time in many ways. I have thought of her often and I'm sorry to say have not had a lot of contact since dads passing, but know she made an impression on me that drive home as I'm sure she has on all she knows. Verda, I will miss you, "The Big Sister".
