“ I knew Vickie years ago and I'm deeply saddened by her passing. My sympathy and respect to her daughters who I also knew. She was one of the finest women I have ever known. A deserving woman, and I sincerely hope she was happy the many years since I last saw her.

“ Sorry for the loss of your wife and mother. May you find hope in the words at Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine- they will rise up! Awake and cry out joyfully you resident in the dust!..." Take comfort in each other and in your memories. Let others help.

“Rob,

I'm truly sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

I would love to come to the celebration for your "Vickie", however I will be out of town beginning Friday.

I keep thinking about the time you were telling me about when your family use to do craft fairs. You would always talk about Vickie and the flowers. Hold on tight to all those wonderful memories.

*Sincere and Heartfelt,

“ Vickie was my best friend in Lanagan when we were kids and we were twirlers together. I have a picture of us that you all would love.
It broke my heart when she moved. Even though I didn't get to be around her after that, I always had such fun memories of her and always loved her so much. Lynn Latty Mosby “ Robin and family, I was so sorry to hear of your loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I did not know Vickie, but I am sure she was one great lady from all the good things I have heard about her.

May the love of those around you and the love of God, help you through the days ahead.

“ Vickie and I had a lot of fun times working together in the wax room, time went fast and was never boring.

She got me on my feet and showed me how to raise money & get donations for my grandson for therapies he needed that insurance would not pay for, we had an auction here at the Jewelry store parking lot, Rande who also worked with us was our auctioneer. We raised over $10,000.

She helped me plow a garden, or I should say she and Rob did most and laughed at my attempt but, she was always willing.

I had several of her straw flower arrangements over the years. She was very crafty.

I have not had much contact with her in the past few years. I am sorry to hear that she has past.

Thank goodness for good memories.
