“ To Violet's family you have my sincere condolences and prayers. She was a fine lady, A great friend. I know that you will miss her deeply, cherish the memories that you have of her. May the Lord hold you in the palm of His hands, keeping you close to Him.

Time has a way of separating friends and neighbors, I will always remember her faithfulness to God and the church. There never was a time when I attended Upper Smyrna Church that she did not greet me. She always let her light shine.

God bless you all.
