“ Bill and I dated for over a year when he lived in Oklahoma. I enjoyed spending a lot of time with Eric, and a short amount of time with Jodie when she came to visit. These were two exceptional and bright kids! We met every day for a beer after work and a how was your day discussion. He was a fine dancer, and he kept me smiling with his humor. He was brilliant with innovative business solutions for JB Hunt. We lost touch sometime after he moved to Texas and I was sad to find years later that he had passed so young. R.I.P.

“ I met Billy and the family in 1964. Our parents were great friends, and we spent our early years growing up together. We both ended up in Texas during our adult life, and continued our "growing up." We lost contact after I moved back to Arizona and Billy moved back to Arkansas. I was so saddened and shocked to hear of his untimely death. Billy, you have always and always will be close to my heart. I will never forget you, Mary, Ken and Kenny. I love you my dear friend.💕💕

“ Dear Eric & Brandy, Jodie Rae & Eric,

I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and concern for you and also share with you the wonderful hope for our dead loved ones. As you grieve your dad's death, please reflect on the hope in question, which comes from Jehovah God. By means of the Bible, He allows us to understand how He'll eliminate death for good one day and bring our dead loved ones back to life. This is evident in Scriptures like (Isaiah 25: 8), (John 5: 28), (1 Corinthians 15:26), (Revelation 21:3 and 4), which can comfort you in this time of sorrow. God's promises are guaranteed because He cannot lie. Moreover John 11 verses 11-14, 39, 43, and 44 attests that Jesus, whom God appoints to bring the dead back to life, can do it since he did it when he resurrected Lazarus and several others when he was on earth. As you await his resurrection, please heed Jesus' counsel in John 17 verse 3 and take steps to gain accurate knowledge of God and Jesus by studying the Bible with the Jehovah's Witnesses. In John 5 verse 39, Jesus explains that such study is imperative for all who want everlasting life one day here on earth, which will become a paradise where you can be re-united with William again in a world free of violence, war, sickness, old age etc... (Ps 37: 9-11 and 29), (Psalms 46: 8 and 9), (Isaiah 33:24), (Job: 33:25).

“ A good friend and a kind man. We worked together for some years at IDC and stayed in touch by phone over the last couple of years.

I love the guy and will miss him. He had a playful outlook on life and a caring heart.

May the Lord hold him close.
